

Summer offers bring cheers to FMS students

The Hindu Business Line, October 26, 2014

---

NEW DELHI, OCT 26: The recently concluded summer placements at Delhi University's Faculty of Management Studies (FMS) have brought cheers to the students with a batch of 225 securing 219 offers in less than four days.

The highest domestic and international stipends were pegged at Rs. 2 lakh per month and 500 Kuwaiti Dinar, respectively, with a median stipend of Rs. 60,000 per month.

Some of the top summer recruiters at the B-School included Boston Consulting Group, Morgan Stanley and IDG Ventures. The number of first-time summer recruiters at FMS this season were 36.

In the general management domain, Tata Administrative Services was the largest recruiter, with summer internship offers to seven students. Other recruiters included Mahindra & Mahindra, Reliance Industries, RPG and Airtel.

For consulting roles, BCG, Aon Hewitt, Deloitte, Accenture Management Consulting, Price Waterhouse Coopers, Everest, Cognizant, Capgemini, Synergy and Avalon Consulting visited the campus. Cleartrip has also offered a strategy role to FMS.

In the finance domain, Morgan Stanley offered internship for its front-end investment banking role. Other coveted internships by PE/VC firms were offered by Indus Balaji (fund management role), Avigo Capital, IDG Ventures, Lumis Partners, and Edelweiss. Corporate finance profiles were offered by Coca-Cola, Philips, Vodafone and Mars. Deutsche Bank was the largest recruiter in the BFSI sector.

E-commerce companies emerged as top summer recruiters at the campus with Amazon, Flipkart, Snapdeal, InfoEdge offering marketing internships to students. Asian Paints, Coca-Cola, Danone, HUL, Mondelez, Nestle, Pepsico, P&G, and SAB Miller also extended internships for the marketing roles.

Consumer banking/marketing profiles were also offered by Citibank, HSBC, Axis Bank and American Express.

Six students have decided to opt out of the summer internship process this year at FMS.